Under the Vienna Convention for Diplomatic Relations, to which India is a signatory, diplomats are immune from the process of law. However, the Government takes appropriate action in all such cases in consultation with the Ministry of External Affairs. If diplomats are found involved in smuggling activities, the concerned Governments are requested to <re<3lall the dijplomata. Those requests are invariably honoured.

Darjeeling: Tea production

713. SHRI MUKHTIAR SlNGH MALIK: Will the Minister of COMMERCE be pleased to state:

(a) what is the total estimated production of Darjeeling tea as at present;

(b) whether the Darjeeling tea gardens need modernisation to boost tea production; and

(c) whether the Central Government propose to provide technical and financial assistance to modernise the Darjeeling tea gardens; if so, what are the details thereof?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF COMMERCE (SHRI P. A. SANGMA): (a) Estimated production of tea in Darjeeling in 1964 was 13.2 M.Kgs.

(b) and (c) The tea industry in Darjeeling has been beset by a number of problems because of topography and agro-climatic factors and high cost of production. Darjeeling tea glardens have low productivity because of old age of bushes which are well past their prime. In order to revitalise the Darjeeling tea industry an interest subsidy scheme for revival of these gardens has been sanctioned by the Government. So far 29 schemes for interest .subsidy involving bank loans of Rs. 777.26 lakhs have been sanctioned by NABARD.
